They rode through the forest and Bear told Erin all about her home, and the ice that broke and separated her from her family.,

They built a den and together they fished by the beach. Slowly Bear began to plump up, her fur smoothed out and her ears perked up.

Fish o'clock

YVES KERVOELEN

In the shimmering depths of the ocean, a little fish named Finn is terrified of the bigger fish swimming above. He fears they might eat him for dinner! But one day, as he quivers in the shadows, he discovers a secret: the larger fish are just as afraid of the dark! Instead of chasing him, they are drawn to Finn's brilliant colors, hoping he can light up their underwater world. Join Finn on a delightful adventure where bravery shines brighter than fear, and friendship blooms in the most unexpected places! This charming tale teaches children about courage, empathy, and the value of embracing our differences. With vibrant illustrations and an engaging storyline, it sparks conversations about overcoming fear and forming friendships, encouraging kids to shine brightly in their uniqueness while fostering an understanding of supportive bonds within a community.

Le chant des papillons

by Yves Kerwoelen

Le chant des papillons

by Yves Kerwoelen

Dans une prairie pleine de vie. La chorale des papillons se prépare pour le festival annuel des fleurs, sous la direction du bien-aimé Maestro Marigold. Mais quelques jours avant l'événement, le Maestro Marigold tombe malade, laissant les papillons inquiets quant à leur performance.

Déterminée à la soutenir, Luna, une papillon pleine d'entrain, prend la direction des répétitions. En entraînant ensemble, les papillons découvrent leurs sons uniques et leurs forces, et apprennent qu'ils peuvent créer une belle musique sans leur chef d'orchestre.

Le jour du festival, ils unissent leurs voix pour une grande représentation, célébrant à la fois leur amitié et l'esprit d'entraide qui les a réunis. Rejoignez Luna et ses amis dans ce conte réconfortant sur la persévérance et le pouvoir de la musique
